Veterinary Care Everywhere's core mission revolves around ensuring access to veterinary care for individuals facing challenges in reaching it for their pets. While our primary focus remains on providing house call veterinary appointments for homebound individuals, our impact has expanded significantly.

In 2022, we extended vital assistance to over 350 homebound individuals and their animals, reaching across the entire state of Connecticut.

The introduction of veterinary wellness clinics, hosted not only at senior centers but also through collaborations with community partners like animal rescues and Veterans Affairs, underscores our commitment to broadening access to care. This strategic expansion aligns seamlessly with our core mission, emphasizing Veterinary Care Everywhere's dedication to overcoming barriers and providing essential support to diverse communities and their cherished animal companions.
